

Christian Stewardship Services now has a vacancy for an Ontario Stewardship Consultant

Cambridge, ON | Hybrid (Work from Home or Office-Based)

A Calling, Not Just a Career

Christian Stewardship Services exists to help believers steward God's gifts faithfully — during their lifetime and through their estate. Since 1976, we have partnered with Christian ministries across Canada to provide Biblically grounded estate and gift planning support that strengthens families and advances Kingdom work for generations.

We are seeking a Stewardship Consultant for Ontario who is deeply aligned with our Christian mission and energized by walking alongside individuals and families as they prayerfully plan their legacy and steward the resources God has blessed them with.

This is not a transactional sales role.

This is relational ministry at the intersection of faith, family, and finances.

Who We Are

CSS is a registered Canadian charity serving churches, schools, Christian ministries, and partner organizations across Canada. We provide:

- Estate planning education and consultation
- Charitable gift planning strategy
- Collaboration with donors' legal and financial advisors
- Structured documentation of charitable legacy intentions
- Governance-grade reporting that strengthens long-term sustainability for our partners

Our work helps transform legacy giving from unpredictable realization into visible, stewarded, and forecastable future impact.

The Role

The Ontario Stewardship Consultant serves as a trusted advisor to donors and a strategic representative of CSS within the region.

You will:

- Meet personally with individuals and families (in-home or virtual) to provide estate and gift planning consultation
- Help clients structure charitable legacy gifts aligned with their faith and values
- Prepare Estate Planning Summaries to support will drafting
- Develop and maintain relationships with allied professionals (lawyers, financial advisors, accountants)
- Represent CSS to partner charities within Ontario
- Platform skills - presenting at events, and for our partner community
- Promote the mission and services of CSS throughout your territory
- Participate as an active member of our national consultant team

This role involves local travel within Ontario and offers flexibility to work from home or from our Cambridge, ON office.

Who You Are

We are seeking someone who:

- Demonstrates a clear and active Christian faith
- Feels called to stewardship ministry
- Is confident, relational, and compassionate
- Communicates complex financial concepts clearly and pastorally
- Strong computer skills an asset
- Is self-directed, organized, and comfortable working independently
- Thrives in meaningful, face-to-face donor conversations
- Understands (or is willing to learn) estate planning principles, charitable gifting vehicles, and applicable tax considerations

Background in estate planning, financial services, insurance, development, or ministry leadership is considered an asset — but alignment with our mission and relational strength are essential.

What We Offer

- Mission-driven work with measurable long-term impact
- Flexibility (home-based or Cambridge office)
- Supportive national team environment
- Established partner network across Canada
- The opportunity to serve donors at significant life moments

Compensation & Benefits

Christian Stewardship Services values the experience, professionalism, and ministry commitment this role requires.

This position offers:

- Starting salary range: $75,000 – $85,000 annually (commensurate with experience)
- Employer RRSP contributions
- Comprehensive health and benefits package
- Flexible work structure (home-based or Cambridge office)
- Meaningful, mission-driven work with long-term impact

We believe those who serve faithfully in stewardship ministry should be supported with competitive and sustainable compensation.
